THE COPENHAGEN AND HAMBURG APPLE MARKETS

The light supplies of barreled apples offered at the Copenhagen auction Wednesday, January 13, met with a slow demand but prices were somewhat higher than last week, according to a cable from Fred A. Motz, Fruit Specialist in Europe for the Foreign Service of the Department of Agriculture. Inquiry was slightly better for the boxed supplies, which consisted of Washington Winesaps and Jonathans. Winesaps sold at about last week's prices but Jonathans registered some advance. The rate of exchange used in converting the prices this week was 18.7 cents per krone against 18.8 cents last week and par of exchange, 26.8 cents, at this time last year.

Prices on the Hamburg market Thursday, January 14, were substantially the same as last week. About 15,600 boxes were offered against 29,000 boxes and 465 barrels last week and 9,700 boxes, 2,500 baskets 500 barrels, 500 barrels at this time last year.
